DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: item 6 as in fig. 1-2. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1 "the side-frame" lacks antecedent basis. Previously a "mirror frame" was recited, and it is unclear if "the side-frame" is intended to reference the recited mirror frame or only a part thereof.

Further, the acrylic pop-out surface is said to be "welded" onto the base. However, welding is a term used only in conjunction with the bonding of metal materials. Thus, it appears that this term is an improper description of the disclosed invention.

Further, claim 1 recites "a bottom board," "the bottom," "the bottom part of the room," and "a bottom lid." It is unclear if these citations refer to one or more than one structural element, and the inconsistent use of such terms does not distinctly define the present invention. It should be noted that the frame shown in the drawings appears to include four separate elements, whereas the frame of claims 1 and 2 seems to include seven elements.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Borden (US 5197213).

Inasmuch as the claims are able to be understood in light of the 112 rejections set forth above, the following rejection applies.

Borden shows a mirror frame(10) with side frames made of transparent acrylics (col. 3-4), having a pop-out surface(14) bonded to a base or bottom(22) to form a flat slender room(16) having therein a removable slender plate(24) upon which a pattern is printed or painted or indirectly adhered thereto (col. 4-5).
